

Career Story with Deborah Brown, Ph.D.: The Long and Winding Road...Full Circle Adventures in Science and Academia

Event Date: Monday, April 15, 2024

Time: 10:00am – 11:30am

Location: CEL Classroom 2-7534

Dr. Brown is an alum of the SMD Microbiology & Immunology PhD Program and is currently the Manager, Joint Educational Programs @ Trudeau Institute, a not-for-profit biotechnology research center in the Adirondacks. Dr. Brown will share her career experiences at different academic institutions from a medical school, to a research institute to a land-grant university. She will lend insight into navigating the bumps in the road, the importance of mentorship at all levels, and the lessons learned along the way.
